

Vacancy

National Director Fiji

Habitat for Humanity Fiji (HFH Fiji) is a beacon of housing transformation, articulating a clear vision and strategy in support of national housing goals and Habitat for Humanity's global mission. HFH Fiji convenes and leads public and private coalitions to implement innovative, evidence-based, systemic housing solutions; build public awareness and support; and secure institutional funding in support of these solutions. HFH Fiji houses expertise in developing and implementing scalable housing solutions, empowering local communities in co-creating sustainable solutions and deepening sector knowledge of potential solutions and their impact on human development and poverty alleviation.

The National Director serves as the Chief Executive of HFH Fiji and is accountable to the National Board of Directors. The role is responsible for driving strategy, securing institutional funding, managing operations, and representing HFH Fiji at national, regional and global levels. The National Director actively engages with Habitat for Humanity International (HFHI) area office and provides important input to HFHI and other national organizations as they are responsible for and closest to the delivery of the HFH mission.

Preferred Qualifications & Experience:

1. At least 5 – 7 years of cumulative experience in the Fiji housing sector; and has worked in or with both the public and private sectors; and has been exposed to both local and national governance
2. At least 5- 7 years' experience in humanitarian programs, managing people, budget and developing and implementing projects funded by complex donors and of working and negotiating with large institutional funders
3. Proven ability to navigate organizational conflict, hold critical conversations, and make ethical, values-based decisions
4. Community development experiences will be a distinct advantage
5. Master's Degree in a relevant field
6. In depth knowledge of Housing Market Systems
7. Familiarity with construction and appropriate technology
8. Proficiency in the primary working language(s) of the country of posting

Compensation and Benefits

The current salary range for this position is FJD140,000 to 160,000 per annum commensurate with qualifications and experience.

How to Apply:

This is a local role and is open to applicants residing in Fiji. Applications must include a current CV with names of at least three recent referees, and a cover letter describing in one page why you should be the best candidate for this position. All applications should be emailed to recruit@habitatfiji.org.fj no later than 19 June 2026. For any other details/queries please send an email to the above-mentioned ID.

HFH Fiji is committed to diversity and inclusion within its workforce and encourages qualified candidates from all religious and ethnic backgrounds, including persons with disabilities, to apply and be part of our incredible mission of bringing people together to build homes, communities and hope in Fiji. All HFH Fiji staff, consultants and volunteers are required to undergo a police clearance check and working with children check prior to commencing employment. HFH Fiji has a zero-tolerance policy on child exploitation and abuse.